About our season...

THE SOUNDS OF THE SEASON: HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS December 16, 4pm, Reception 3pm

Our second annual "Sounds of the Season: Home for the Holidays" presents music uniquely identified with home...our home: Indiana. From popular holiday favorites to rare Hoosier-composed chestnuts, this collection of music will bring the audience through several of the historical traditions that occur within Central Indiana, as well as, throughout the country.

FREE TO BE ME March 17, 4pm, Reception 3pm

Oliver Button is a Sissy is a classic 1979 children's book written and illustrated by Tomie dePaola. This gem has been set to music by composer Alan Shorter and has been performed by over fifty major choruses nationwide and debuted at Carnegie Hall and the Kennedy Center. The story of Oliver, a child bullied by his school peers, will strike a chord with audiences as his story unfolds in a sweet, Broadway style.

HOOSIER HOMEBOYS May 19, 4pm, Reception 3pm

Indiana has produced a number of composers and performers, but how many could you name? The IAC is ready to help you walk down memory lane with the music of Hoosier greats like the Jackson Five, Cole Porter, and Hoagy Carmichael, while also introducing new names and their homegrown sounds. Come hear us highlight some of the major contributions of Hoosiers to the musical conversation of American Music, including a rarely performed unpublished three-act opera entitled "Tom Tom" by Shirley Graham Du Bois.
